DEAR CUSTOMER

Not all Mexican food is hot. Most of our traditional Mexican dishes are cooked to authentic Mexican recipes using fresh herbs, lemon and lime juice, imported spices and Mexican beer or tequila marinades, a small amount, if any, chilli peppers are used. But if you do like things hot, try "pepping up" your meal with some of our habanero chilli and pineapple sauce, which is made from the hottest chillies on the planet.

You have been warned!

Enjoy your meal - Señor Dick
